

Little Rock's LID Ordinances

The City of Little Rock recently passed two ordinances to facilitate the use of Low Impact Development (LID) practices. One ordinance deals with the stormwater management and drainage aspects of LID, and the other deals with associated issues in the Zoning Ordinance.

A more complete set of regulations regarding LID is expected to be developed when Public Works revises the Stormwater Management and Drainage Manual in the coming months.