

LRPR Keeping “Lights On After School”

Little Rock Parks & Recreation will be participating in “Lights On After School”, a nationwide event on Thursday, Oct. 17, celebrating after school programs and their role in the lives of children, families and communities.

There will be activities for participants, parents, family and friends at Dunbar Community Center, Southwest Community Center and Stephens Community Center.

The event at Dunbar will take place from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. and feature games, performances and a parade.

Southwest is welcoming all family and friends at 6:00 p.m. to celebrate and share as they display the many activities they engage in during the program.

The program at Stephens will begin at 6:00 p.m., and will feature performances by their after-school cheerleaders and the Community Center Line Dancers and the award winning “Jr. Temptations”. Officer Rodney Davis, of the LRPD, will be the feature speaker, talking about safety and bullying.

Dunbar Community Center (376-1084) is located at 1001 W. 16th Street. Southwest Community Center (918-3975) is at 6401 Baseline Road. Stephens Community Center (603-9974) is at 3720 W. 18th Street. For more information, please call the individual center.
