DUNBAR COMMUNITY CENTER

The Dunbar Community Center opened its doors on October 10, 1954. The lead story in the Arkansas Democrat Gazette read: The Dunbar Community Center for Negroes at West 16th and Chester Streets will open today. The facility cost was $210,000.00 and opened under the City of Little Rock Parks and Recreation Department with funds provided by the Negro Park Bond issue. The Community Center was used for “everything” in the Negro community. Dunbar Community Center opened its doors with Albert Lamb as its first Director. Mr. Lamb solicited the advice of several community leaders and other community centers in the country to assist Dunbar in becoming the vehicle of choice for Negro sports, dances, club meetings, Scout activities, movies, dinners, stage plays, concerts, and much more.

Dunbar Community Center has seen the faces of several celebrities from near and far including professional athletes and entertainers: Al Green, Staple Singers, Hunter Sisters, Hunter Brothers, Sidney Moncrief, and many more.

Dunbar Community Center now has its first major facelift with a newly renovated and expanded facility from the citizens of Little Rock bond issue val-
