

Therapeutic Recreation Arts Festival

★ Bringing Out the Best in Me! ★

- WHY: To enrich the quality of life for people with disabilities by encouraging creativity through the arts. Through the community's resourcefulness they provide hands on activity opportunities to increase self-esteem and confidence by offering a sense of accomplishment and adventure.
- WHAT: An arts festival in honor of Therapeutic Recreation featuring hands on crafts, art, music, entertainment, and refreshments, through the work of volunteers, for children and adults with special needs, but is open to everyone.
- WHERE: Clear Channel Metroplex
10800 Colonel Glenn Rd. Little Rock, AR 72204
From I-430 North or South, take the Colonel Glenn Rd. exit (exit 4), and turn east. Clear Channel Metroplex is approximately one block from the I-430 interchange.
- WHEN: Friday May 2, 2008 10:00 am–1:00 pm
- WHO: Little Rock Parks and Recreation, Therapeutic Recreation Division,
Please recognize our booth sponsors as well.
- ACTIVITIES: Hands-on art activities such as Clay pots, Foam project
Beaded necklaces/bracelets, Face Painting, Snag Golf,
SandArt, Caricature Artist, Climbing Wall and much more.
- ADMISSION: FREE!
- PUBLIC INFO: Cindy Covey, Therapeutic Recreation Coordinator
Little Rock Parks and Recreation. (501) 565-0140.
Or e-mail Ccovey@littlerock.org

