BACKGROUND	On an annual basis, the City issues a Request for Supplier Qualifications (RFSQ) for bond counsel services for that year. This year the City initially issued the first request during February 2025. After only receiving one response, it was determined that the most appropriate action was to rebid for the services. The second bid was issued on March 25, 2025. The second time documents were taken by eight different firms with two responses received. One from Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP, and the other from Wright Lindsey Jennings. Both firms were determined to be qualified with Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP, determined to be the most qualified of the two firms.
