What is COMPSTAT?

COMPSTAT stands for Comparative Statistics. In a weekly meeting of police command staff, divisional supervisors and other personnel, all parties discuss recent Part I criminal activity and propose strategies to address the situation.

Each meeting covers a three week period, and rotates between the three patrol divisions – Downtown, Northwest, and Southwest. All three divisions provide maps tracking activity in seven different crime types, but only one division presents per week.

Other divisions also report – Special Operations Division, Special Investigations Division, Major Crimes Division, and the Headquarters Division – Communications Section. Those divisions reports are not included in this report because they may contain sensitive law enforcement information.

Glossary and Notes

Part I Incident - The FBI standard for its Crime in the United States report, issued each fall. Part I violent crimes are murder or non-negligent homicide, rape, robbery and aggravated assault. Part I property crimes are burglary, larceny, and auto theft.

In our COMPSTAT report, we only include maps of non-domestic aggravated assault incidents, but all aggravated assault incidents are included on the charts.*

Note:

There is a high concentration of crime going on in the center of SW. We can see there were many incidents in the boxed area two weeks ago, as well as last week. Note also that the majority of this crime has occurred in the neighborhoods, and not as much on the main thoroughfares.
