Definitions
For the Period Ended February 28, 2019
(Unaudited)

Accrual Basis of Accounting means a Basis of Accounting that recognizes the financial effect of transactions, events and interfund activities when they occur, regardless of the timing of related cash flows.

Revenue(s) means: (1) Increases in the net current assets of a Governmental Fund Type from other than expenditure refunds and residual equity transfers, but does not include any general long-term debt proceeds and operating transfers in - which are classified as "other financing sources" -- unless these constitute a reservation of fund balances for encumbrances carried forward from the prior year and the expenditure for which the fund balance was created has also been carried forward; or (2) Increases in the net total assets of a Proprietary Fund Type from other than expense refunds, capital contributions and residual equity transfers, but does not include operating transfer in which are classified separately from revenues unless these constitute a reservation of fund balances for encumbrances carried forward from the prior year and the expense for which the fund balance was created has also been carried forward.

Expenditures means decreases in net financial resources under the current financial resources measurement focus, and pertains to payment of normal operating payments and encumbrances. Expenditures are measured in governmental fund accounting.

Expenses mean the cost of doing business in a proprietary organization, and can be either outflows or the using up of assets - cost expiration - such as the depreciation of fixed assets.

Fund Balance means the difference between assets and liabilities reported in the governmental fund. The Fund Balance is the excess of revenue or expenditures that has accumulated since the inception of the fund.

Note: The financial reports for all governmental funds are prepared using the modified accrual basis of accounting. The financial reports for all proprietary funds are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.
